NOTE.—Of these Parishes, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into the union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted by the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

Fund for Widows and Children of Clergymen	24
Fund for Facilitating Life Insurance	6
Total.....	38

The Trustees find that some clergymen engaged in active duty in the Diocese, and canonically connected therewith, have not been able to avail themselves of the Fund for Facilitating Life Insurance because they were not actually resident within the Diocese. The Trustees therefore recommend that Rule I. of the "Rules for the Management of the Fund for Facilitating Life Insurance" be amended so as to read as follows :

Rule I. Aid from this Fund shall not be extended to any clergyman unless he shall be canonically connected with the Diocese ; the amendment consisting of the striking out of the words "resident in, and" after the word "be" in the present rule.

The Trustees regret that the Thanksgiving collections and donations have not been sufficient to justify the allowances heretofore granted to the beneficiaries of the Widows and Orphans' Fund, and that, in view of the gradually increasing number of beneficiaries, they have been obliged to reduce several of the allowances.

This sum may be increased during the present session of the Convention. It has been carefully expended in aid of students belonging to the Diocese of New York, pursuing their studies with a view to Holy Orders. Small as it is, it is a welcome addition to the funds of the Society, which are becoming insufficient for the legitimate demands which are made upon them. It is gratifying to note this year the unusually large number of young men who are turning their thoughts to the Sacred Office, and it is unfortunate that those among them needing financial aid can look for so little encouragement from the Church. There have been seventy applications for admission to St. Stephen's College, and only twenty-eight students have been received. Sixty new students crowd the Halls of the General Theological Seminary, a fact without precedent in the history of the Institution, and full of the happiest auguries for the future, while only twenty-six or seven Churches and Chapels out of the two hundred or more in the Diocese have made the collection for Theological Education in accordance with the provisions of the Canon. Statistics are sometimes eloquent. Under circumstances like the present, cannot the Society look for a more careful compliance with Canonical obligation on the part of the Parishes of the Diocese?

The Superintendent alluded in his Report of last year to the new rule of the Society making the amount of annual stipend to students dependent upon proficiency in their studies, as indicated by examination. The rule is now in successful operation and, it is believed, will be followed by the happiest results.

All which is respectfully submitted,

ANDREW OLIVER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, September, 1890.

The Secretary presented, and read the following report:

The Warden of St. Stephen's College begs to report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York that at the last commencement thirteen graduated Bachelors of Arts, and two received the certificate of having completed the special course of preparation for Candidates for Orders. Twelve of these have entered the General Theological Seminary; and two, Hoffman Hall in Tennessee. The new academic year has just opened, with eighty students in attendance. There have been seventy-four applicants, but the College has rooms and scholarships from the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning for only thirty of these, so that forty-four had to be declined.

As the College becomes more known, the number of applicants increases. During the last four years only one-half of those who applied could be received, and the present year only one-third could be provided for. It would appear from this that the special work of the College is recognized and appreciated, and that if we had had the means to receive all who have applied, the number of students would be two hundred.

The past year, $26,000 have been added to the endowment, which now amounts to more than $92,000. When it reaches the sum of $95,000, there is the promise of $5,000, which will bring the endowment up to $100,000. Our generous benefactor, the Rev. C. F. Hoffman, D.D., has added $25,000 to his previous gifts of $55,000.

St. Stephen's numbers among her chief benefactors the names of Bard and Aspinwall, and Miss Ludlow and Mrs. Willink and Nichols, and Hoffman. The life of the College is no doubt insured by the gifts of these benefactors, and it will, by the blessing of God, continue year after year to furnish well-educated and trained candidates for the ministry of the Church.

September 23, 1890.

R. B. FAIRBAIRN,
Warden.

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Hoffman, D.D., the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the report of the Superintendent of the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning and the report of the Warden of St. Stephen's College be referred to a Special Committee, with power to take measures to lay the facts referred to in these reports before the parishes of this Diocese and of the other Dioceses of the State, in order to secure the collections required by the Canon for the funds of the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning in this State.

The Chair announced the following Committee on Memorials and Petitions: The Rev. E. A. Hoffman, D.D.; the Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D.; the Rev. David H. Greer, D.D.; Mr. Everett P. Wheeler; Mr. Henry Dudley.

September, 1890.

On motion of Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the investment by the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of a portion of such fund in New York Central and Hudson River RR. Debentures, and in Chicago and Western Indiana RR. Bonds, is hereby approved.

The Secretary presented the following report :

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE PORT OF NEW YORK.

The Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the Port of New York, in presenting its 46th Annual Report, appears for the fourth time before the Convention of the Diocese.

Another year in which to continue our good work opens before us ; and, as we review the events of the past twelve months, it is with pleasure we note that the 46th birthday finds the Society in the prime of its manhood, not only willing, but anxious to follow our Lord's command—"to preach the Gospel to every creature."

The full extent of the good done by the different chapels, through their respective missionaries, can only be known by those who personally visit and participate in the different work of the chapels, the mission rooms, and the Sailors' Home. To the poor homeless seamen these shelters are indeed very "Havens of Rest" and safety, where both body and soul are ministered unto.

The reports of the missionaries will show the number of men reached and helped, but no human estimate can be made of the wide-spread influence of this part of the Christian work done in remembrance of Him.

Owing to the great work to be done, and the failing physical health of the faithful missionary of the Church of Our Saviour, Rev. Robt. J. Walker, he was, on the 1st of July, retired as "Emeritus"; but his time for this world was short and lasted only to the 24th of the month, when his spirit took its flight to its heavenly home, and his body was deposited, at his own request, in the "Sailors' Plot" of the Society, in the "Cemetery of the Evergreens." Mr. Walker had served the Society for thirty-two years faithfully—fourteen in charge of the Coenties Slip Station, and eighteen as missionary of the "Church of Our Saviour." The services at this station are maintained by temporary supply, until a successor to Mr. Walker is appointed.

The Reverend Messrs. Hyland and Maguire remain faithful at their posts: the first in charge of the N. R. Station, "Church of the Holy Comforter," and the other at "Coenties Slip Mission."

To sustain these three stations and carry on the necessary work, the sum of at least $13,000 annually is required. The report of the Treasurer shows a large deficit for the past year, which had to be met by a generous loan, and the Society appeals to the churches of the Diocese, more especially to those located in the City of New York, for their remembrance. Certainly all Church members in this large maritime centre, so dependent on the coming and going of the vessels of transportation and trade, will consider it to their interest, as well as obligation, to make honest and Christian men of those to whom so much is intrusted.

Never were the managers more interested or desirous of extending the influence of the Society, and it is with the fullest faith in the benevolence which never fails to respond to a worthy cause, that they submit this report and appeal to the people of New York. If only each church will annually contribute an "offering," the aggregate would meet the requirements of the work.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board of Managers.

THOS. P. CUMMINGS,
Vice-President.

The Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., Archdeacon of New York, presented the following report :

Report

OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE NEW YORK PROTES-TANT EPISCOPAL CITY-MISSION SOCIETY FOR THE DIOCESAN YEAR 1889-1890.

During the past year the staff of clergy employed by the Society, as well as the various localities at which their work is carried on, remains substantially the same as during the preceding year. One or two changes have taken place, but they have not been such as to merit special mention. But the scope of our work has, nevertheless, increased. At the Chapel of the Good Shepherd on Blackwell's Island, and at that of Christ the Consoler at Bellevue Hospital, many influences for good and helpful results have multiplied so rapidly that the value of our labors in these places has more than doubled. Noiseless in their action, but far-reaching in their effects, the work which finds in these chapels its centre has wrought powerfully in a score of ways. It is not too much to say that not only have missionaries and inmates at these institutions felt the quickened impulse, but that among officials and employees lessons have been received, and gratefully acknowledged, which tell for Christ and His Church every day and hour.

The Superintendent reports that, aside from his numerous duties as Arch-deacon of the city, he has preached over seventy times at the various jails, hospitals, asylums, etc., during the past year, has represented the Society at many of the city churches, made a multitude of calls among twenty-six institutions, and met the clergy for a service of Holy Communion and for conference twice every month, except during the summer months, when, for good reasons, the service has been omitted.

On these occasions some rector of a city church has generally been invited as guest, while during eight months of the year some thirty parishes have been represented by their clergy from time to time in our public institutions, to the gratification and profit of the inmates.

The following notes as to various features of the labor carried on in our field of work will be of interest :

The services which are held in the public institutions have been frequently attended by choirs, and musical volunteers, who have been of the greatest assistance to us. Many of the laity have also acted as bedside visitors, while the assistance of St. Elizabeth's Guild, and of kindred organizations, is gratefully acknowledged. Nor will the world ever know the true story of the sacrificing labors of the Christian ladies who go from cell to cell in the prisons, and follow up with silent aid and encouragement the departing footsteps of released prisoners.

At the Tombs our Missionary, in conjunction with the General Agent, has been instrumental in improving the condition of the young women committed for first offences.

The authorities have gladly granted a request that such cases should be separated from those of old offenders, and this is now done.

We trust that such a step heralds the advance of a great reform, which will spread through all the prisons of the State and country, until the schools of instruction in crime, now almost universally upheld by the public authorities, shall be entirely abolished.

At St. Barnabas' House the Day Nursery has grown until we are unable to accommodate the children who apply. The present limit is sixty, and we shall be obliged to consider some plan by which this number can be largely increased. The training-school for young servants is in active operation, and the work has so broadened that we have been obliged to appropriate part of the premises No. 309 Mott Street, in the rear of St. Barnabas' House.

The accommodation in the latter place being intended for women and children only, some perplexity has arisen as to how we should dispose of the men, who come commended to us by the clergy from prisons and hospitals, as being worthy of some temporary shelter and aid. But we have now made an arrangement with a lodging-house by which such cases can be taken care of, and have already paid for 280 lodgings and 583 meals, besides spending a considerable sum in redeeming pawn-tickets, loans to the poor, and car-tickets in cases of emergency. At St. Barnabas' the monthly average of lodgings furnished is about 1,600, and of meals about 6,500.

Another enlargement of our work has been attended with gratifying results. A Christian lady of wide experience and large acquaintance with public officials is now sent every morning to the various police courts to watch the female cases that are called up, and to investigate such as appear worthy of aid. In this way first offenders are frequently released, cases of distress at home are relieved, many almost innocent girls are shielded from contact with vicious ones, and those who have wandered away are given a chance to reform. We cannot overestimate the good which has thus far been done, and we hope to extend this peculiar work until every court in the city shall be watched from day to day by a good woman ready to aid in every way her erring or unfortunate sisters.

Attention may also be properly called to the dispensary work which is done at St. Barnabas' House, where a physician attends every morning to give advice and medicine to all that apply.

The families which attend the services at the chapel partake largely in the benefits of this good work. Yet the greatest care is exercised not to pauperize the poor, and if, as we are glad to know, the congregations at St. Barnabas' show an encouraging growth, we feel that this is due to thoroughly healthy causes. In this connection we would note that the past year has been marked by a large increase in confirmations in our mission stations. About 120 have received the rite—a number, we believe, far in excess of any former year.

We close our report by expressing our gratitude to a Christian lady who has announced her intention of giving the Society $40,000 for the construction and endowment of a "Boys' Club," whenever a proper site shall be selected. A committee is now engaged in looking after the interests of this important work.

Such institutions need to be multiplied all over the city, and we trust that this gift may prove suggestive to others who feel a keen responsibility for the possession of wealth. A summary of the year's labors is as follows, viz.:

The President then announced that the balance required to complete the amount of $25,000 needed to meet these obligations had been subscribed by three persons.

The Archdeacon of New York offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That Canon XVIII., Section 3 (II.), of the Canons of this Diocese be amended so as to read :

The members of each archdeaconry shall be the clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three lay delegates from each parish, to be chosen in such manner as each archdeaconry shall direct.

On motion the proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Nash offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That Canon XIV. be amended so as to read :

Whenever it shall be proposed to establish a new place of worship within the boundaries of existing parishes, it shall be the duty of the parties to give notice of such intended action to the Rectors and to the Vestries, if there be any, of the three nearest existing places of worship, and if such rectors and vestries, or either of them, refuse consent to such new place of worship, the moving parties shall make application to the Bishop, and furnish him with the proof of the notices above required having been given, who shall thereupon refer the matter to the Standing Committee for its action.

On motion the proposed amendment was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Nash offered the following resolution :

Whereas, The proceedings for the consolidation of the Churches of St. Stephen and Holy Trinity, Harlem, have led to numerous litigations, which cannot probably be brought to a termination for a considerable period ;

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Convention the proposed consolidation should be no further proceeded with.

Pending action on the foregoing resolution the Convention, on motion of Mr. Nash, adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, September 25, 1890.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rt. Rev., the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. Geo. S. Baker, the Rev. David J. Evans, and the Rev. Dr. Harris.

The Bishop, having taken the chair, the Minutes of the first day were read and approved.

Several Clergymen and Lay Delegates, not present yesterday, appeared and took their seats.

The Rev. Dr. Peters, Chairman of the Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, presented the following report :

The Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates has examined the certificates referred to it, and finds the certificate of St. Paul's Church, Pleasant Valley, and that of Zion and St. Timothy's Church, New York City, defective as to date of signature. There was placed in the hands of the Committee the order of the Supreme Court for the union and consolidation of Zion and St. Timothy's Churches, New York City.

With reference to St. Stephen's Church, New York, your Committee reports that there has been placed in its hands a copy of the Final Judgment of the Court of Common Pleas, ousting, as illegally elected, seven members of the Vestry, chosen at the last Easter election. As there remains but one Warden and two Vestrymen, and hence no quorum, there is, for the purposes of Canon II., Sec. 7, no Vestry. There being no Vestry, the certificate of election by the Congregation, referred to the Committee, is in order according to the Canon.

The Committee unanimously so reports it.

All the other certificates referred to the Committee were found to be in due form.

Respectfully submitted,

For the Committee,

T. M. PETERS,

NEW YORK, September 25, 1890.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury presented the following:

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York :

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York respectfully report that during the past year the income of the Fund and the appropriations from it have been about the same as last reported, and that the principal of the Fund continues to be securely invested, as appears from the Report of the Treasurer hereto annexed, and that they have distributed to deserving and underpaid Clergymen of the Diocese allowances amounting in the whole to $1,700, a relief which they would have been glad to extend had the funds in their charge permitted.

The Trustees beg to renew the statement made in their last report that the Fund which is intrusted to them is not one designed merely for the benefit of parochial organizations, but is of a distinctly Diocesan character, being the only one which at all approaches the fulfilment of the object contemplated by a Sustentation Fund. The Trustees also respectfully express the hope that the appointment at the last Convention of a Committee to confer with them on this subject may promote the recognition by the Diocese of the true position and purpose of this Fund, and may lead to such a development of its capacities as may insure the extension and permanence of its influence.

John Jay and Mr. William Alexander Smith to serve as Trustees of the Parochial Fund during the ensuing three years. The Secretary reported that he had cast the ballot, and the Chair declared that the persons named were duly elected.

The Rev. Dr. Greer, in behalf of the Committee on the Sustentation Fund, reported progress, and on his motion the Committee was continued.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese then delivered his seventh Annual Address. [See Appendix A.]

The Rev. Dr. Mills presented the following:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following Resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention, who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the Fund, as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XV. of the Diocese, from every Congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1890-91, be one and one-half per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Mills the resolutions were adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Mulchahey presented the following:

Report

ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary respectfully report:

That there never has been a time in the history of the Seminary when its condition in every department could be reported on with more grateful satisfaction than the present; as it has never before been so adequately equipped and furnished for its high educational work, and never before gathered under its instruction and training so large a number of candidates for the ministry from all parts of the Church. Notwithstanding the noble and seemingly ample additions to its buildings, which have been made within the past few years, the number of students is now so large (113) as to fill all its rooms ; and there can be no more question of the wise foresight than of the Christian munificence which has provided for the erection of the two additional dormitories which are now in course of construction.

It would be culpable unfaith if we should fail to recognize a close and normal connection between the large increase in the number of candidates for Holy Orders and the special supplications for the sending forth of laborers into the harvest which have been made throughout the Church in recent years. At the same time, it may with equal reason be claimed that something of the credit for the particular increase in our General Seminary is justly due to the manifest enhancement of its advantages for ministerial education ; and that not only in its more ample and attractive buildings, but still more in the more nearly adequate constitution of its Faculty and the high reputation for competent learning and ability of the men who have been chosen to fill the vacant and added professorships.

On one point in this connection we deeply regret that it is not possible to speak with equal satisfaction. The professorships are adequately filled, but they are far from being adequately endowed. With but two exceptions, we believe it to be the fact that the men who are now serving the Church in that most honorable and responsible capacity, one for which only our foremost men—men of pre-eminent learning and ability—are qualified, receive, in the way of compensation for their services, only such salaries as by any common clerk would be deemed meagre and insufficient. Shame on us that it is so ! And the only possible extenuation for it that may be pleaded is, that the attention of men of wealth in the Church, who might easily endow these professorships, has probably not been sufficiently called to the subject. At least $2,000 a year should be added at once to the salary of almost every professor in the Seminary. Are there not men of wealth in the Church—may there not be such even in this Convention, who will make provision for such endowments without delay ?

The Committee have to report to the Convention that there is one vacancy, occasioned by the decease of the Rev. Dr. Swope, in the Board of Trustees, to be elected by this Convention, and, in accordance with the usage of many years, they have agreed to nominate, and do hereby nominate, for such election the Rev. James Mulchahey, D.D.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES MULCHAHEY,	} Committee.
R. B. FAIRBAIRN,
L. G. DODGE,
S. NICHOLSON KANE,
DOUGLAS MERRITT,

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Fairbairn the ballot was dispensed with, and the Rev. James Mulchahey, D.D., was elected to fill the vacancy in the Board of Trustees of the Seminary.

The Rev. Dr. Richey offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously by a rising vote :

Resolved, That the Convention desires to put on record its sense of its great loss in the death of the Rev. Cornelius E. Swope, D.D., for many years its representative in the General Convention of the Church, a trustee of the General Theological Seminary, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Missions.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Richey, the following amendment to Canon XIII. was referred to the Committee on Canons :

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes and Settlement of Rectors.

1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the Incumbent, due notice of the same shall be given to the Ordinary, who, after consultation with the Church Wardens, shall take such measures as he may judge expedient for the temporary filling of the vacancy.

2. If the vacancy be not filled within the six months next ensuing, the Bishop shall appoint a Minister in Charge, who shall be responsible for the maintenance of Divine service and the cure of souls until a Rector be duly installed.

3. The call to the Rectorship of a Parish shall not be regarded as giving a valid title until the same shall have been approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese, nor shall dissolution of the connection between a Rector and his Parish take effect without notice given to the Bishop and Standing Committee.

4. A Rector duly called and approved shall not enter upon the duties of his Cure until he has been inducted into the same by the Archdeacon of the Convocation to which the Parish belongs, or by some other fit person appointed by the Ordinary.

5. Neglect to comply with the provisions of this Canon on the part of a Vestry will subject the Parish to the forfeiture of its right to representation in Convention ; and in event of a Rector abandoning his Parish without obtaining previous consent, he shall be refused letters dimissory until the terms of the Canon are complied with.

The Secretary presented and read the following communication :

32 ST. MARK'S PLACE,
NEW YORK, September 25, 1890.

MY DEAR DR. HARRIS :

I have received your note communicating the resolution passed by the Diocesan Convention now in session.

This action occasions me very great surprise, for nothing could have been more unexpected. It deeply touches and humbles me, under a sense of great unworthiness ; but it also fills me with profound gratitude to God for his goodness, and to my brethren of the clergy and laity for such a token of affectionate remembrance and sympathy. Will you kindly convey to the Convention my warmest thanks for their most gratifying action? And may the Spirit of Truth and Love be with, inspire, and guide in all the deliberations of this Council of the Church.

Your affectionate friend and brother,

H. DYER.

THE REV. THOS. R. HARRIS, D.D., Secretary.

MEMORANDA.

Before my day four Bishops had finished their work and departed this life, and six previously consecrated remained.

In my time 144 Bishops have been consecrated. Present number, I believe, 75.

Since my time the Dioceses have increased from 6 to 44; Missionary Jurisdictions, 13; Foreign Missions, 7.

Of the Clergy of this Diocese who were living when I came to it, only perhaps half a dozen are now alive.

This Diocese then included Long Island and Albany.

The Secretary presented the following:

Report

OF THE SECRETARY OF THE CONVENTION.

The Secretary of the Convention respectfully reports that he has complied with the instructions of the Convention as to the printing and distribution of the Journal.

Applications for admission into union with the Convention were received from the Church of the Archangel, New York, and from St. Mary's, Tuxedo, and were duly transmitted to the Chairman of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches.

The formal notification to the Dioceses of the changes in the Prayer Book, proposed by the Convention of 1889 and to be finally acted on by the Convention of 1892, has been received from the Secretary of the House of Deputies and is herewith communicated to the Convention.

THOS. R. HARRIS,

September 24, 1890.

Secretary.

The Secretary, in behalf of the Treasurer of the Albany Fund, offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of New York hereby authorizes and requests the executors of the estate of the late Mr. Edward Haight to pay to Mr. James Pott, Treasurer of the Albany Fund, all moneys received and held in trust by the said Mr. Edward Haight in behalf of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of Albany, with interest accrued on the same.

On motion of the Rev. T. McKee Brown the ballot was dispensed with, and the Standing Committee was elected unanimously to serve during the coming year, with the exception of Professor Drisler, in whose place, on account of his intended absence from the country, Mr. D. Nicholson Kane was elected.

The Rev. T. McKee Brown moved that the ballot be dispensed with, and that the Rev. John W. Brown, D.D., be elected a Deputy to General Convention in the place of the Rev. Dr. Swope, deceased.

A motion by the Rev. Dr. Huntington to lay the foregoing motion on the table was not adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington nominated the Rev. Dr. Ziegenfuss, and the Rev. Dr. Shipman was nominated by Mr. S. P. Nash.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Huntington, the Convention proceeded to ballot.

The Inspectors of Election reported as follows:

The Rev. Dr. Richey offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That the Notification to the Dioceses of the changes in the Prayer Book, proposed in the General Convention of 1889, to be acted upon at the General Convention of 1892, be printed in the Journal of the Proceedings of the present Convention, and that a Committee be appointed to consider and to report on the subject matter of such Notification.

Which was adopted.

The President appointed the following as the Committee :

The Rev. Thos. Richey, D.D., the Rev. W. R. Huntington, D.D., the Rev. Alford A. Butler, Mr. Joseph W. Harper, Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Orange, the Convention adjourned to sit as the Board of Missions of the Diocese.

The Archdeacon of Orange thereupon presented the following :

Report

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF DIOCESAN MISSIONS.

September 24, 1890.

The Board of Managers gratefully acknowledge the manifest tokens of God's blessing on the Missionary Work of the Diocese during the past year. A careful survey of the whole field, with diligent study of the reports of the several Archdeaconries, convinces them not only of the importance of this Missionary Work in the Diocese of New York, but also of its wisdom and essential value as a necessary element in the healthful development of the spiritual field committed to our loving trust and care.

The city and the country bear such mutual relations that both are interested in the welfare and encouragement of all that tends to the elevation of morals, the deepening of the religious sentiment, and the fixing of habits of truth and righteousness.

"Christian nurture," says the Bishop of New York, "is the greatest safeguard of those who go out from homes in small communities into the perils of a great city, and our Mission Work in cities would be far less discouraging if we could prosecute the work in the rural portions of the Diocese with more energy."

To possess the land for Christ and His Church, to minister to His little ones, to comfort the sick and the afflicted, to uphold the weak, to make stronger the strong, to bring in the wanderers, to enlighten the ignorant, and to awaken the careless—are the pure and elevated objects set before us, and to whose furtherance we ask your prayers, your alms, and your generous efforts.

In the Archdeaconry of Dutchess, services have been maintained during the past year at eleven stations. The Rev. Thomas Burgess having resigned as Chief Missioner in April last, certain changes were necessarily made in the arrangement of the working staff, and in the assignment of stations. It is unnecessary here to specify all details; but such dispositions were made as should best conserve the interests of all concerned.

At Millbrook encouraging progress has been made, and steps are now being taken to erect a suitable residence for the Missionary in Charge.

At Hopewell Junction, a lot has been secured, and money almost sufficient to erect a Chapel.

At Pine Plains, the Church of the Regeneration has been somewhat enlarged, and the interior of the same greatly beautified.

In the Archdeaconry of Orange, the Missionaries at Monticello, Warwick, Highland, Marlborough and Milton, Ellenville, and Stone Ridge make reports clearly showing not only the maintenance of regular ministrations, but increase and progress.

At Highland, for instance, twelve candidates have recently been confirmed.

At High Falls, in the Rosendale cement district, a convenient and substantial rectory has just been completed.

At Port Jervis, the old church building has been sold, all debts paid off, and about $7,000 cash is in hand for the erection of a new Church on a desirable lot, eligibly located in a central and convenient position. This lot is valued at over $2,000, and is the gift of the Misses Wallace.

Work in the old Parish of St. David's, Otterkill, has been revived through the energetic ministrations of the Rector of Walden, whose Parish lies twelve miles distant. Old St. David's is one of the most venerable in the Diocese, work there having been begun by the venerable S. P. G. in the year 1729.

The Missions of Rosendale and Rifton are in a promising condition, and at Greenwood Lake services and house-to-house visitations have been regularly and systematically maintained. The region in the vicinity of the lake is rapidly growing in importance through the large sale of building plots.

At Pine Hill, in the Catskill Mountains, the outlook is most promising. The building fund has been increased by $900 during the past summer, and the foundation of the new Church will be laid this autumn.

St. Mary's Church, Tuxedo Park, mindful of its responsibility toward the large number of Italian laborers employed in the vicinity, has appropriated $600, and engaged a Clergyman, a native of Italy, to minister to them. This Clergyman is licensed by the Bishop of New York. At Ellenville, Mr. E. C. Humbert and wife, of Brooklyn, have conveyed to the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Convention of the Diocese the valuable plot of ground and all thereon, including the church building, etc. For this we are devoutly thankful. It is a most important and acceptable gift.

In the Archdeaconry of Westchester, a gratifying report comes from Armonk of improvements made in the Church. A recess chancel, memorial windows, chaste altar appointments, a new fence in front of the property, have given dignity and character to the old Parish Church. In other Missionary stations brave and faithful work is recorded ; many difficulties have been met and overcome ; " the things which remain have been strengthened."

From Spring Valley, the Missionary extends his ministrations to the inmates of the County Poor House, and, in order to reach and touch the scattered lambs of his flock, has established a Sunday School in the woods.

From the House of the Good Shepherd, Rockland County, beneficent work is constantly being done on the hill-sides and in the mountains.

In the Archdeaconry of Richmond, work already undertaken and reported at the date of the last Convention has been maintained, and a new Mission at Erastina established.

The Missionary work accomplished in the Archdeaconry of New York has been laid before you in the report already read by the Superintendent of the New York City Mission Society, and its repetition here is, in consequence, unnecessary. Appended hereto will be found a list containing the names of Missionaries and Stations, and the Treasurer's report, exhibiting an account of receipts and expenditures.

The Canon requires that an estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary work of the Diocese for the ensuing year be presented at this time. This amount will be the same as appropriated for the past year, viz., $16,000 (sixteen thousand dollars), a sum that is really moderate when measured by the ability of the Diocese, the importance of the work, and the fruitful returns secured.

We therefore beg to offer the following resolutions :

Resolved, That the sum of $16,000 be appropriated for Missionary work in the Diocese, said amount to be apportioned as follows :

From the Archdeaconry of	Duchess.....	$1,500
" "	Orange.....	1,000
" "	Westchester.....	1,800
" "	New York.....	10,900
" "	Richmond.....	800

Resolved, That, appreciating the great importance of the Missionary work of the Diocese, and the increased opportunity of extending the ministrations of the Church to souls eagerly desiring them, we, Clergy and Laity, hereby pledge our best efforts toward increased and adequate contributions for the support and extension of the same.

In the administration of the Rite of Confirmation, and in other occasional Services, I have been assisted by my brethren the Bishops of Rhode Island, Nova Scotia, Mississippi, Delaware, and Nebraska, of whose welcome aid I desire, here, to make grateful mention.

Their labors, with yours, have helped to swell the number of our gains. But even these cannot wholly console us in view of the record of our losses, which this year includes, among our Bishops, the late Venerable Bishop of Kansas, Dr. Vail, so gentle, lovable, and laborious, the author of some of the most useful treatises in connection with the history and polity of the Church, and long one of our frontier Missionary Bishops ; and within the Diocese, among the clergy :

The Rev. Dr. William Staunton,
The Rev. Robert J. Walker,
The Rev. Dr. C. E. Swope,
The Rev. Dr. Horatio N. Powers,
The Rev. Alexander Capron,
The Rev. Francis M. Tower,
The Rev. William White Montgomery,
The Rev. William T. Wilson, and
The Rev. W. W. Baker, Deacon.

And among the laity :

LAYMEN DECEASED.

Mr. John H. Shoenberger, St. Thomas' Church, New York, also P. E. City Mission.

Mr. Richard Lawrence Schieffelin, Senior Warden St. Mary's Church, Manhattanville.

Mr. H. Sylvester Bosworth, Vestryman St. Ignatius' Church, New York, Senior Warden after Mr. Zabriskie's death, till growing infirmity obliged him to relinquish the office.

Mr. Jno. H. Suydam, Vestryman St. Andrew's Church, Harlem.

Hon. Daniel B. St. John, Warden, and Messrs. George M. W. Kerr and David A. Scott, Vestrymen of St. George's Church, Newburgh.

Mr. John Jacob Astor, Trinity Church, New York.

Mr. Wm. Cargill Kimball, Supt. Sunday-school, Chapel of the Comforter, New York.

Mr. Ambrose C. Kingsland, Grace Church, New York.

Mr. James H. Lounsberry, Senior Warden, Church of the Holy Spirit, Kingston.

Mr. Henry E. Lawrence, of Grace Church, New York.

Mr. John Appleton, Clerk of Vestry, 'St. Thomas' Church, New Windsor, for twenty years.

Mr. W. Butler Fitch, Vestryman of St. John's Church, Kingston.

Mr. Hugh Auchincloss, Junior Warden of Grace Church, New York.

This is much the longest, as it is certainly the most noteworthy, record of losses that, during my Episcopate, I have been called to report. Already I have, in another connection, overtaxed your patience, and I may not do so further. But, indeed, under any circumstances, where so many departed brethren claim our remembrance, one at best could only glance at services and personal characteristics which are worthy of minutest delineation. Dr. Staunton, with his fine musical and literary culture, his careful ecclesiastical learning, as evidenced in his published works, his gentle manners, his high-bred courtesy, his calm wisdom; Mr. Walker, a missionary to our seamen for nearly forty years, and, with scarce an exception, never absent from his post; Dr. Swope, so actively associated with the history of the Diocese, as well as of the venerable Parish in which for a quarter of a century he ministered, and in both so loved and honored; Dr. Powers, the poet-priest and true scholar, unknown to almost every one who hears me, and yet one of the most gifted minds in the Church; Mr. Montgomery, uniting in his own person the traditions of two dioceses, and grandson of the first Bishop of Pennsylvania; Mr. Capron and Mr. Tower, both missionaries in a true sense, the one with and the other without stipend, but each giving himself in cheerful self-devotion; Wilson, both saint and scholar, thinker and seer; and young Baker, just ordained to his Diaconate, and scarce receiving his commission ere death called him to lay it down—these are our losses among the clergy; while those among the laity extend all the way from the venerable Richard

L. Schieffelin, who was a Deputy to sixty-six consecutive Diocesan Conventions—a record, I apprehend, without precedent, and which was, in its story of constant service, a type of his useful life—to Mr. Hugh Auchincloss, whose house was my first home when, twenty-two years ago, I became a Presbyterian of this Diocese, and whose sterling and sturdy character, with its substratum of strong affections, deep humility, and unswerving loyalty to the Church, was an abiding stay and support to all who enjoyed his friendship. These men were, almost every one of them, in official relations to our Parishes as Wardens and Vestrymen, and were able to show in many ways how large a power for good these offices in the Church may exercise.

I must leave for some future occasion the suggestions which grow out of the work of the past year, but before concluding this Report there are one or two matters concerning which I desire to ask the attention of the Convention, and perhaps such consideration, during the recess, as shall enable a future Convention to take action concerning them.

1. The first of these is in regard to a due provision for the widows and orphans of our deceased clergy. As you are aware, any provision for these on the part of the Diocese is a matter of recent action, and the result of the wise enlargement of the powers of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy. But there appears to be a grave misapprehension as to the powers of the Trustees, and still more as to the extent of their resources. For one department of their work, that of the care of aged or infirm clergymen, their resources are at present sufficient, and I am in hopes that they will be in a position before many years to enlarge its operations, so as to make it also—what we much need—a Retiring Fund. But our widows, and with them our orphans—for surely these are a most sacred charge of the Church—are in grave danger of being left to suffer; and when I remind you that, as announced in their Report yesterday, the Trustees have been constrained to reduce the already most scanty appropriations to these, I cannot but think that the situation will fill you, as it did me, with pain and dismay. In those cases where such reduction has been brought to my own notice, I have undertaken to become personally responsible for sums sufficient to make up this deficit, and I venture to hope that some of you will claim the privilege of sharing this burden with me; but, hereafter, we want such concerted action as shall both adequately and permanently meet the difficulty; and, meantime, I wish to say, in the strongest terms I can command, that no parish, church, or chapel, in city or country, in this diocese ought, on any pretext, to allow Thanksgiving Day to come and go without a collection for this Fund, nor without a pungent and personal plea by the minister in behalf of these sorrowful and anxious ones, whose circumstances, could I bring myself to tell their story here as it has been told to me, would move any heart not utterly destitute of Christian sympathy.

2. Another subject demanding the attention of the Convention is the due maintenance of our Diocesan Missions. I have striven for this in ways which I had hoped would not irritate you by their iterations nor weary you by their prolixity, and, on the whole, the history of the past seven years is one to which we may point with honorable pride. The Treasurer has watched and begged, and advanced money, and has in many ways spared the missionaries' feelings and mine. But the apportionments are often tardily paid, small as is the largest of them, and insignificant as is their whole sum compared with that expended, often, in a single parish, for parochial purposes; and it would sometimes seem as if it were expected that our own Diocesan work should stand aside till all other possible and conceivable claims were served. If there is a better way for paying this debt than that which, when I first proposed it, you cheerfully accepted, I hope the Convention will give me the benefit of its wisdom in discovering and applying it; but, meantime, I hope my brethren, clerical and lay, will recognize an obligation the discharge of which, if only it be recognized, need not cause any parish the smallest inconvenience.

3. Another subject which requires the attention of the Convention is some amendment of the Statute for the Incorporation of Churches which shall adequately and intelligibly define the qualifications, in parochial elections, of voters. Recent judicial decisions in this connection, if they are to be accepted, as I suppose they are, as constructions of the law, have revealed a looseness and vagueness of terminology in the statute which involve to the parishes in this Diocese possible dangers which those of the clergy and laity who are trustees for large and important pecuniary and other interests may well view with apprehension. We ought not to hesitate to sacrifice in this connection many of those feature in the statute submitted to this Convention by our able Committee on this subject, which have been the subjects of criticism here or elsewhere, if at least we can secure a law which does not, as at present, leave the whole matter in great and often perplexing indefiniteness.

4. Let me refer, in conclusion, to another danger in our work, for protection from which I am glad to know some steps have already been taken. In the charitable work of the Church there must needs be something of the wisdom of the serpent as well as the harmlessness of the dove, and in a day when, as in this city, there are persons masquerading through its streets in the habits of clergymen or of religious societies, whose business there is strong reason to believe sometimes is not only not honest but harmful, it is certainly time to ask whether every house that baptizes itself with a sacred name is worthy of the Church's confidence, and whether, before Church people contribute to the support of any work or of any individual whatever, there ought not to be some responsible authorization, without which applications for aid, however specious, shall be unhesitatingly refused. I know that this is a matter in which our own sympathies and our timidity conspire easily though unconsciously with others' knavery, but it is well to remember that every dollar given unworthily, with its consequent fraud tardily but almost inevitably to be detected and exposed, is a contribution to that gradual antipathy toward all charitable appeals which, sooner or later, closes the hand to the most worthy of them.

I hope we may resolve in this matter of the stewardship of money upon two things : First, that we will not get ourselves what we cannot rightly ask for nor honestly use ; that we will abhor obtaining, by whatever indirection, from the State, or by means of any legislative appropriations, money which the State has no right to appropriate to any religious communion or school or society—abhor it as a crime against honesty and good citizenship, and a thing to be everywhere reprobated as fraught only with evil and danger ; and again, that in all our methods for the maintenance of the Church's work we shall always be found on the side of openness and equity, inviting always and everywhere the fullest scrutiny, and equally careful neither to get nor give by methods that are questionable or careless in their character and harmful in their results.

A committee of the Archdeaconry of New York has had this matter under consideration, and I trust that their conclusions and suggestions, which will, I presume, shortly be made public, and which I venture to hope may be somewhat widened in their range and application, may have the attention of those to whom I speak.

These are indeed mainly minor matters. I rejoice that in those which are of major consequence I can find no words save those of congratulation. For the peace and good order of the Diocese, for its remarkable and aggressive activity in this city and elsewhere, for the greater spiritual earnestness that I am cheered by seeing in many directions—in the missionary enthusiasm of our younger clergy, and in the sensitive sympathy with the sorrows and wants of our fellow-men, conscious, as we may well be, of how far short we come of what ought to be, and I trust are, our own ideals—for all this I rejoice and thank God most fervently. It is an interesting and inspiring thought that in this city alone the ministrations of our Church are carried to the multitudes among whom her lot is cast in no less than ten different languages, a repetition, in a very glorious sense, surely, of the marvel of the day of Pentecost; and better still, I hope, a prophecy of that steadily widening influence which God will give to His Church just in proportion as she is faithful to His gifts and to her own opportunities. May God make you and me faithful to ours, and glad and grateful for the privilege of spending and being spent for Him!

The above report includes that of the Chapel at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson.

During the year past the parish has received many beautiful gifts in the form of memorials. At Easter-tide a superb Hardman upright piano, a beautiful quartered oak retable, and a handsome polished altar cross; also a complete set of altar linen. On Whitsunday a pair of finely wrought vases and missal-stand were used for the first time; they bear the simple inscription, "In Memoriam." At the same time, the Altar Guild gave a very handsome dossal. The Ladies' Aid, besides greatly enhancing the comforts of the vestry-room, have now on hand a sufficient sum to purchase a pipe organ.

On the 17th of June the Rev. Francis Marion Tower, the Assistant of the Parish, departed this life. He had served the parish for a number of years as Lay Reader, and for two years, less one month, in the ministerial office. In less than two years the parish has buried priest and assistant. May the dear Lord grant to the departed rest and peace, and to us who survive courage and strength!

The Holy Communion is celebrated every Sunday and Holy Day. There is a regular Friday Morning Service throughout the year. In Lent there is service every day and sometimes oftener, together with a Bible Class that meets there once a week.

The Bishop was unable to give this Parish a date in spring which would allow a proper instruction, due to my applying too late, and the class formed in August is ready for his visitation in October.

The decrease this year in the number of souls (not communicants) connected with the church is due to a thorough revision of the Parish List, and the striking out from thence the names of all those who have refused their privileges, or who have had a mere nominal membership from the very first.

The only debt on the church is a note for $1,500 which draws 6% interest.

The Financial Exhibit is incomplete. The money owed is generally paid before the closing of the year.

The Missionary and Congregation would desire to return sincere thanks to the members of Grace Church, White Plains, for the gift of cushions for the pews and chancel of St. Paul's Chapel, Greenburgh, through the Rector, the Archdeacon of Westchester, the Rev. The chapel has no income: the collections are small, and are all used for the expenses of the chapel. There is not a wealthy family belonging to the Congregation.

A Chapter of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been established in this Parish, and is doing a good work.

Two years ago the Rector organized an Altar Society for the purpose of glorifying God in the systematic and reverent care of the Altar and Sanctuary. Through their efforts the chancel of the church has been greatly enriched. An altar and credence table of oak, and a chancel rail with supports of brass, were added a year ago ; and this Easter an eagle lectern of carved oak, costing $180, was presented to the church, being "the gift of the Altar Society and Sunday-school of the Parish."

A branch of the Woman's Auxiliary has also been established. Through the organized efforts of these societies more than $500 have been contributed for the beautifying and enrichment of the Parish Church and for the General Mission Work of the Church.

From about October 1, 1887, to about August 1, 1888, what is now the Church of the Archangel was a Mission of St. Michael's, under the care of the Rev. Montgomery H. Throop, at that time Assistant Minister at St. Michael's. A little before August 1, 1888, under the advice of the Rector of St. Michael's, the parish was incorporated. The Rev. Charles R. Treat assumed the Rectorship, September 1, 1888. At that time the congregation was holding services in a store on the corner of 117th Street and St. Nicholas Avenue, and numbered some ten or fifteen souls. The congregation soon became too large to meet in the little store, and from January 29, 1889, to June 30, 1889, held services in a hall upon 125th Street, near Eighth Avenue. Two lots were purchased upon St. Nicholas Avenue, between 117th and 118th Streets, and the erection of a modest edifice begun. This was occupied for the first time, June 30, 1889. It was built with borrowed money, and the land was paid for with a purchase-money mortgage. Therefore, as only a few hundred dollars have been received from any outside source, the efforts of the congregation have been thus far centred upon the task of self-support and payment of debts.

At date of report, the congregation hold the title upon the church, which is valued at $40,000, and owe only about $20,000. There is no floating debt, and there has never been a debt incurred through excess of expenditure over income.

On Ascension Day our new church-edifice was opened for Divine Service. The Rector celebrated the Holy Communion at 7 A.M., and the Assistant Minister at 8 A.M. At 11 A.M. the Rev. Prof. Richey celebrated the Holy Communion, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Davenport and the Rector, who delivered the sermon on the occasion. Despite a heavy rain-storm, there was a large attendance of the clergy and laity.

In the evening the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese preached, speaking enthusiastically of the faith and energy which, in spite of innumerable difficulties, had accomplished so grand a work.

The church is a noble structure, grand in its proportions, most effective in its interior finish, and perfect in its acoustic properties.

The parish supports an Infirmary and Dispensary for Women at 2410 Second Avenue, a which there is a Training School for Nurses, all under the direction of Dr. Malcolm McLean, who is assisted by a competent staff of surgeons.

Besides the clerical helpers the parish employs a woman lay helper, who devotes all her time to the conduct of a Kindergarten-school and other parish work.

The new church will be opened November 30th—St. Andrew's Day—with appropriate ceremonies. It will comfortably seat 1,500 persons. A magnificent and complete set of chimes has been presented to the parish, also a new clock with Westminster-chime attachment, both of which will be placed in the new tower now being erected.

It is gratifying to note that during the year, when our church was being raised over our heads and we were temporarily worshipping in the school-room below, our income steadily increased until it surpassed that of any preceding year.

The apparent discrepancy between the entry of receipts from Pew Rents, and the statement that the expenses of this parish are met by the weekly envelope system and by voluntary offerings, is explained by the fact that the pews were rented up to May 1, 1890. Since that time, the present system has been in use. The small excess of total receipts over those of last year is due to the fact that during that year extraordinary efforts were made to raise money, resulting in the payment of debts to the amount of $2,237.51. During the year just closed no such extraordinary efforts were made.

The foregoing report is for eight months only, as St. Timothy's and Zion Churches were united in April last under the title of "The Church of Zion and St. Timothy."

On the night of 22d January St. Timothy's Church building was destroyed by fire, and the Vestry decided at once to erect a new and large edifice. A few weeks later a proposition was received from the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of Zion Church for the amalgamation of the two parishes, and after careful examination this proposition was accepted, and the amalgamation completed at the time above stated.

The sincerest thanks of this parish are due to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Thomas' Church for their unbounded kindness in allowing the use of their beautiful edifice on Sunday evenings and other occasions; also to the Rev. Henry Mottet, who has placed the Church of the Holy Communion at our disposal whenever required.

On April 25, 1890, Zion Church was incorporated with St. Timothy's Church, under the title of the Church of Zion and St. Timothy. On May 21st the property of Zion Church was sold for $300,000 to the First Dutch Reformed Church. Its building will be preserved for a place of worship.

The object of the incorporation of the two churches was to provide a large and handsome free church, suitably endowed, in a situation imperatively demanding free church accommodation for all classes. Of this new combined parish, the Rev. Henry Lubeck, of St. Timothy's, became Rector, and Rev. C. C. Tiffany, of Zion, Rector Emeritus.

The preceding Parochial Report extends, of course, only until April 25, 1890, covering a period of only seven months.—C. C. TIFFANY, late Rector of Zion Church.

This parish has been in existence only four months, and was created by the amalgamation of the Parishes of Zion and St. Timothy. A handsome church-building, 70 feet by 165 feet, capable of accommodating 1,200 worshippers, is about to be erected on 57th Street, between Eighth and Ninth Avenues, on the site of the old St. Timothy's, which was destroyed by fire in January last, and a very commodious Parish House will be erected in the rear, fronting on 56th Street, Mr. W.

Halsey Wood, of Newark, N. J., being the architect. All the seats in the church are to be free and unassigned.

The parish is in possession of sufficient funds to put up all of its buildings without incurring any debt, and it is expected that, in addition to this, there will be a very considerable sum for endowment.

In connection with the work at Port Jervis, services have been held during the year at Monroe and Callicoon Depot. The report of this work is included in the above. In connection also with the regular work of the parish an earnest effort has been made and continued throughout the year to collect sufficient funds for the erection of the new church. Determined not to incur a debt, the work has been delayed, but there is every hope that before another summer shall expire the parish will be in possession of a beautiful edifice consecrated to the worship of Almighty God. The $7,000 in the above report include the estimated price of the fine site given on which the church is to be built, and money collected during the year.

The condition of Church affairs in this parish has in times gone by been anything but flourishing. I undertook charge six months ago under temporary license from the Bishop of New York. During that time the congregations (particularly in the morning) have been good, and the offertories are said to have been larger than during previous years. They have averaged over $10 a Sunday. We receive assistance from the Archdeacons to the extent of $250 per annum. The total amount of stipend received is at the rate of $1,000 per annum. I have been preparing some young people for baptism and confirmation, but hitherto there have been no administrations of either the sacrament of baptism or the ordinance of confirmation. This is a parish in which things generally may be said to be in a tentative and transitional state. There is a widely spread spirit of good-will toward the Episcopal Church, which by tact and skill may lead on to closer relations, but at present the attitude of all (even those more directly interested in the church) is that of mere lookers-on. If it were possible to form a well-organized and energetic vestry, Warwick might take a much higher rank as parishes go.

A fair (Fancy Fair) has just been held which has realized over (gross receipts) $300 for church improvements.

Christ Church has lately removed from Fifth Avenue and 35th Street to 71st Street and the Boulevard. As it is not yet known how many of those connected with the parish before the removal will retain their connection with it in its present location, no estimate can be given in this report of the number either of families or communicants. Much of our parish work having for the same reason (the removal) to be reorganized and begun anew, no statement that would not be misleading can be made at present as to that.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received Reports, according to the Canon, from the following Clergymen of the Diocese not having Parochial or Missionary charge.

THE REV. SAMUEL M. AKERLY.

"I would respectfully report: That I have been without a cure during the past year, but have answered all calls to work so far as my health would permit. I have preached 21 times, and either officiated alone or assisted at 57 other services, being 78 in all, one-half of which were in the Diocese of South Carolina."

THE REV. WILLIAM S. BOARDMAN.

"According to the requirements of the Canon I beg leave to report to you: That during the past Conventional year I have visited Egypt, the Holy Land, and Syria. At Jerusalem I visited the English Mission, and conferred with a native Syrian clergyman in regard to their work among the Jews. At Damascus I preached in the English chapel, visited and addressed a Sunday-school, composed of Jewish and a very few Mohammedan children, who seemed bright and intelligent, and also visited the chaplain at his house and informed myself concerning his work. At Smyrna I read morning prayer and preached in the English chapel, the chaplain being ill. At Athens I assisted the English chaplain on Easter Day by taking the early celebration, and preaching at the second service. I also visited the school established by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Hill, now under the charge of Mrs. Hill's niece, and attended a reformed Greek service in their chapel. I have also assisted and preached in various chapels of our Church on the Continent of Europe, but was prevented by ill-health from resuming my duties at Lucerne. I am now restored to health, and submit this report of work which, though small in amount, was yet of exceeding interest."

THE REV. J. W. BONHAM

"Respectfully reports: That while in Philadelphia he has officiated in various churches on Sundays, and, to increase his usefulness by ministering to the bodies as well as to the souls of men, during week-days he has pursued the regular course of studies in Jefferson Medical College, passed a successful written examination in the seven departments of medical science, and graduated as M.D. in April, 1890."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

"Respectfully reports: That during the last twelve months he has officiated as opportunity offered in this and adjoining Dioceses."

THE REV. EDWARD COWLEY

"Respectfully reports: That during the last Convention-year he has administered the Holy Communion 4 times in public; baptized 1 infant; officiated and preached 15 times; visits and prayers to the sick, 12 times; addresses to Sunday-schools, 5 times; and prepared for the press 'The Writers of Genesis,' and related topics, in illustration of Divine Revelation."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports as follows: That during the Conventional year he has rendered assistance from time to time to the Rector of Trinity Church, New Rochelle; that he took charge of Grace Church, City Island, for the month of September, celebrating the Holy Communion on the first Sunday of that month; that he has celebrated the Holy Communion four times in St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck—fourteen times in St. John's Church, Wilmot, New Rochelle."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year, although it has seemed necessary for him to devote much of his time to literature, and the teaching of literature, he has probably preached as many sermons and celebrated the Holy Communion as often as many rectors of parishes. Besides continual Sunday duty, he has done some parish work, has baptized several children, married one couple, officiated at funerals, made sick-calls, and has earnestly tried to help some souls into the way of right. His longest parish engagements have been with All Souls' Church, New York City, and with Zion Church, Wappinger's Falls. His literary work includes the writing of two books and the delivery of a course of lectures on 'Modern Thought.'"

THE REV. J. BRECKENRIDGE GIBSON, D.D.

"I respectfully report: That during the year since the last Diocesan Convention I have been engaged in the pastoral and academic work of St. John's School. I have also assisted regularly at the services in Trinity Church, Sing Sing."

THE REV. EUGENE AUG. HOFFMAN, D.D., D.C.L., Dean of the General Theological Seminary,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other Dioceses. He has baptized one infant, married one couple, and officiated at two funerals, all of which were recorded in the registers of the parishes to which they belonged."

THE REV. ROBERT HOLDEN

"Respectfully reports: That since last Convention, besides fulfilling his duties as Rector of Trinity School during the greater part of the year, he has officiated and preached several times in various parishes as his services have been needed."

THE REV. GEO. B. JOHNSON.

"In presenting the annual report required by the Canons, I have only to say: That I acted as chaplain at St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck, until December 1st. Then for three months I was in charge of St. Luke's Church, Matteawan, and since March 1st I have been taking like temporary duty at Grace Church, Millbrook."

THE REV. JOHN LIGGINS

"Respectfully reports: That he is still unable to officiate in the public services of the Church owing to the infirm state of his health. He continues writing for the press on missionary topics and furnishing missionary information."

THE REV. NICHOLAS F. LUDLUM

APPENDIX H.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CANONS ADOPTED BY THE CONVENTION OF 1890.

(See JOURNAL, p. 77.)

CANON XIV.

Amended so as to read :

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new Parish.

CANON XVIII.

The first sentence of Sec. 3. (II.) amended so as to read :

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct.

APPENDIX I.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows :

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 9. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order :

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint two Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President :

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections: one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Missionary Committee.

8. The Receiving and Referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Admission of Parishes into union with the Convention.
5. Reception of the Clergy and Lay Delegates of the same.
6. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
7. The election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies, and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Missionary Committee.
8. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
9. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
10. Report of the New York Protestant Episcopal Mission Society.
11. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
12. Report of Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
13. Report of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
14. Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.
15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
16. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
17. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
18. Report of the Committee on Canons.
19. Reports of Special Committees.
20. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex-officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If on any such report it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word “ Resolved ” shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the minutes.

XXI. A question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.
